Who should enrol on this National Certificate: Project Management course?

The National Diploma in Project Management, NQF Level 5 provides for a comprehensive set of competencies that will enable a person to manage, co-ordinate or support simple to moderately complex projects in any sector.

In South Africa Project Management is considered a scarce skill and there is an urgent need for competent practitioners who can work as project leaders/co-ordinators and project managers.

Project Management is a discipline in its own right and requires application of a range of competencies that extend beyond the field of general management. Projects vary in complexity and thus the industry recognises a progression of skill development and application by individuals. This National Diploma provides the skills needed by project management personnel and for the wide set of competencies required when managing simple to moderately complex projects.

What are the pre-requisites for the National Certificate: Project Management course?

For you to enrol on this qualification you should be in possession of:

- A National Senior Certificate or equivalent.
- 'Equivalent' refers to foreign qualifications (these are qualifications that you obtained in a foreign country, and which are evaluated by SAQA to be equivalent to the university entrance qualification of South Africa).
- Communication at NQF Level 4.
- Mathematical Literacy at NQF Level 4
- A good command of English.
